

Fast Facts

Missouri REAL ID

As of today:

- Missouri driver licenses and nondriver identification cards (IDs) are accepted for visiting federal facilities, such as military bases, through Jan. 22, 2018 (based on a grace period granted by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security [DHS]).
- Missouri driver licenses and IDs are accepted for travel on airlines through Jan. 22, 2018.

License Offices	Military Bases and Federal Facilities	Air Travel
Missouri residents should continue to follow the same procedures as they have in the past to obtain their driver licenses or IDs as they become due.	Current Missouri driver licenses or IDs will be accepted on military bases and federal facilities until Jan. 22, 2018. Missouri has applied for another extension.	Current Missouri driver licenses or IDs will be accepted for air travel until Jan. 22, 2018. Missouri has applied for an extension.

WHAT TO EXPECT DURING THE CHANGE TO REAL ID

As of Aug. 28, 2017:

- The Department of Revenue begins the process of Missouri driver licenses and IDs reaching REAL ID certification through the DHS.
- Full implementation of the REAL ID certification requirements is expected to take at least 18 months. During that time the Department will:

