

Suspension and Reinstatement Requirements

First violation	Suspension of operator's driver license and owner's motor vehicle registration plates, a $20 reinstatement fee, and proof of financial responsibility.
Second violation within two years of the first violation	Suspension of operator's driver license and owner's motor vehicle registration plates, a $200 reinstatement fee, and proof of financial responsibility.
Third or subsequent violation	Suspension of operator's driver license and owner's motor vehicle registration plates, a $400 reinstatement fee, and proof of financial responsibility.
Note	Proof of financial responsibility must be filed and maintained with the Department of Revenue for three years after the suspension period has ended, or your driver license will be resuspended. (See Types Of Financial Responsibility below).

Types of Financial Responsibilities

- A certificate of motor vehicle liability insurance (Form SR-22 or SR-22A). Contact an insurance company for further details.
- A certificate of self-insurance issued by the Driver License Bureau. A certificate may be approved for persons or companies who own more than 25 motor vehicles and provide evidence that they are financially able to pay for any accident judgment rendered against them.
- A surety bond or real estate bond. The surety bond must be for $75,000. The real estate bond must be $150,000 and approved by the circuit court judge in the county where the real estate is located.
- A deposit of cash or negotiable securities in the amount of $75,000.

If you submit the above requirements at least two weeks before the reinstatement eligibility date, a reinstatement notice may be processed on the date you are eligible. Reinstatement fee payments may be accepted by telephone using most major debit or credit cards. You may also pay in the form of a cashier's check, money order, or personal check made payable to the Missouri Department of Revenue. Please include your full name, address, date of birth, and driver license number on the payment. The Department of Revenue may electronically resubmit checks returned for insufficient funds.

