

Suspension and Reinstatement Requirements

- One year suspension of your driver license or vehicle registration (plates);
- $150 reinstatement fee; and
- Proof of financial responsibility.

Note: Proof of financial responsibility must be filed and maintained with the Department of Revenue for three years after the suspension period has ended, or your driver license will be resuspended.

Types of Financial Responsibility

- A copy of your insurance identification card that meets the minimum liability insurance limits of 25/50/25. Contact an insurance company for further details.
- A certificate of self-insurance issued by the Driver License Bureau. A certificate may be approved for persons or companies who own more than 25 motor vehicles and provide evidence that they are financially able to pay for any accident judgment rendered against them.
- A surety bond or real estate bond. The surety bond must be for $75,000. The real estate bond must be $150,000 and approved by the circuit court judge in the county where the real estate is located.
- A deposit of cash or negotiable securities in the amount of $75,000.

If you submit the above requirements at least two weeks before the reinstatement eligibility date, a reinstatement notice may be processed on the date you are eligible. Payments may be accepted by telephone using most major debit or credit cards. You may also pay in the form of a cashier's check, money order, or personal check made payable to the Missouri Department of Revenue. Please include your full name, address, date of birth, and driver license number on the payment. The Department of Revenue may electronically resubmit checks returned for insufficient funds.
